It Is Important
for All Parties to Review The Preliminary Report.

The Preliminary Report is an offer to issue a policy of title insurance covering a particular estate or interest in land subject to stated exceptions.

Since these exceptions may point to potential problems with your intended purchase, it is important for all parties to review the report once it is received.

A Preliminary Report provides a list of the matters which will be shown as exceptions to coverage in a designated policy or policies of title insurance, if issued currently, covering a particular estate or interest in land. It is designed to provide an interim, or "preliminary" response to an application for title insurance and is intended to facilitate the issuance of the designated policy or policies. It is normally prepared after application (order) for such policy(ies) of title insurance on behalf of the principals to a real property transaction, for the purpose of facilitating requirements relative to closing and policy issuance in form and content approved by those parties.

If a title policy is not contemplated, a Preliminary Report should not be ordered. Instead, consideration should be given to requesting a Condition of Title Report or other similar title product.

The Preliminary Report states on its face that it is made solely to facilitate the subsequent issuance of a title insurance policy and that the insurer assumes no liability for errors in the report. Accordingly, any claim arising from a defect in title must be made under the title policy and not the Preliminary Report.

After a title order has been placed, matters relative to the title policy coverage on the subject property are assembled in a title search package and examined by skilled technicians. This is when the Preliminary Report is prepared and sent to the customer. The report contains relevant information so that the parties to the transaction will become aware of matters which will not be insured against by the title company. This report is issued before the title policy, hence the name Preliminary Report.

Those matters shown in the report are as follows:

1

The estate of interest covered.

2

The owner of the estate or interest.

3

The parcel of land involved.

4

The exceptions, liens, encumbrances and other risks which will not be insured against if a Title Policy is issued.

5

Other requirements and provisions which are reflected as "Notes" in the Preliminary Report which are removed if and when a title policy is issued.

Please note: this brochure is intended for general information purposes only and is not to be relied on in interpreting the full legal effect of the documents and words shown herein.

Schedule A

1.

A fee (the word "estate" is used to express the degree, quantity, nature, duration, or extent of an interest in land). A fee simple is the highest type of estate or interest an owner can have in land, freely transferable and inheritable, and whose owner is entitled to possession. (There are many other estates or interests in land that we could insure.)

2.

This shows who the owner of record is and how title is vested (or how the owner holds title to the land i.e., a single man, a widow, husband and wife as joint tenants, etc.)

3.

The description of the land covered in the preliminary report.

Note:

Many times, minerals (e.g., oil and gas, etc.) have been reserved or excepted in previous conveyances. In these instances, we would add an "exception" to the legal description, such as: "Except therefrom all oil, gas and other hydrocarbon substances in and under or that may be produced from a depth of 500 feet below the surface of said land, without the right of surface entry, as reserved in the deed recorded..."

Note #1.

Covers matters regarding title charges and normal billing matters in relation to the respective title order.

Note #2.

This confidential information statement is used to enable the Title Officer to eliminate the title problems which may arise through similarity of the name of seller and/or buyer with the name of another person against whom there may be judgments, tax liens, or other matters affecting property ownership. (This is also known as the statement of identity, the "S.I.")

Note #3.

A state chartered savings & loan associate prior to making a loan, may investigate the sales price, etc., of any sale made within six months prior to their anticipated loan. Therefore, they must require recording information of deeds or any transfers within that period.

Note #4.

This determines what type of charge will be incurred for the policy. Title policy fees under our current pricing schedule permit a reduction for parties who were "insured owners" within the past 60 months thereby making a "short term" rate available.

Note #5.

This is Chicago Title's note to the customer regarding the current "good funds" statute and wiring information.
