CHICAGO TITLE

President's Day

Presidents' Day is an American holiday celebrated on the third Monday in February. Originally established in 1885 in recognition of President George Washington, it is still officially called "Washington's Birthday" by the federal government. Traditionally celebrated on February 22 — Washington's actual day of birth — the holiday became popularly known as Presidents' Day after it was moved as part of 1971's Uniform Monday Holiday Act. Presidents' Day is now popularly viewed as a day to celebrate all U.S. presidents past and present.
